The Michigan based flute and guitar duo, Folias, performs an eclectic mix of music from Argentine tango, modern classical music, to compositions by guitarist Andrew Bergeron. They have also premiered new compositions such as Murray Gross' Between Friends premiered in the spring of 2004.

Folias released their debut CD, Tangos Metamorphoses, in January of 2004 on the Bluegriffin label based in Lansing, Michigan. The CD includes Folias' original arrangements of traditional Argentine tangos, Astor Piazzolla's History of Tango, along with two compositions by Andrew Bergeron.

Folia's U.S. and Canadian tours in 2004, 2005, and 2006 have included public recitals in the great lakes region, and tango music performances on the western coast.

Carmen Maret

As a flutist, dancer and tango scholar, Carmen Maret merges music performance with music ethnography. She studied tango as an ethnomusicology Master's student at Michigan State University, and produced a Master's thesis in 2005 that looked at tango in the Michigan Argentine Tango club based in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Before her interest in tango, Carmen Maret specialized in performance. She received her Bachelor of Music in flute performance from the University of Missouri-Kansas City and her Master of Music in flute performance from Michigan State University.
